

Assignment 3

Q1.) What is Morse code?

A1.) Morse code is a secret language which in which English alphabets are encoded into dots and dashes where dots are a unit of measurement and a dash is 3 times the duration of a dot. Morse code is usually transmitted by on-off keying of a light, electric, sound source.

Q2.) Who developed Morse code?

A2.) Samuel Morse developed the morse code He assigned dots and dashes to alphabets.

-Akshay Bagade